SPORTS ESSENTIAL IN WAR TRAINING—SOME OF THE LEADERS

ZYBYSZKO IS RUINED MAN NOW

Wladek Zybyzsko, the famous Polish wrestler, is a ruined man. He has received word that every shred of his property in Europe has been confiscated, and that nothing at all remains that he could call his own. "It amounts to thousands and thousands and represents almost the work of my lifetime," he said. "It represents all that I made and saved in Europe and part of what I made in America. The property was seized by the Austrians and is located just over the line in England."

STECHER BOYS WILL JOIN NAVY; WERE IN CLASS 2

LINCOLN, NEB., July 30.—Although both in class 2-A of the draft, which probably will not be called for months, Joe Stecher, contender for the heavy-weight wrestling championship of the world, and his brother, Tony, who handles the business side of Joe's affairs, are going to enlist. Both will enlist at Omaha, if they obtain permission from their local draft board. Tony confirmed a statement to this effect given out by F. J. Ross, in charge of navy recruiting at Omaha.

WILLARD MUST FIGHT OR LOSE TITLE

Jack Dempsey, flushed with his victory over Fred Fulton at Harrison, N. J., yesterday sent a telegram challenge to Chicago, seeking to "take on" Jess Willard to prove that he, Dempsey, is heavyweight champion of the world.

"I will match with him, ten, twenty or forty rounds for the championship and give every cent of the gate to some war charity."

"If Willard doesn't accept this I will claim the championship. I am glad that he hasn't retired, that he will fight again to defend his title," said Dempsey in his telegram.

STAR INDIANA MARKSMEN IN CONTESTS AT PERU

PERU, IND., July 30.—The fourth annual Hoosier classic shooting tournament will be held Wednesday and Thursday at the Peru Gun club traps near this city. Frank M. Stutesman, president of the club, predicts the attendance will be the largest ever had at a similar event. On Wednesday there will be ten fifteen bird events, and on Thursday there will be five twenty bird events. There will be six interstate trophies, and the Edgar Apperson cup will be awarded the high gun for the two days. The Hoosier classic shoot will be on Thursday. The cup is now held by D. J. Dalton of Warsaw, Ind.

DECISION MAY KILL WORLD'S SERIES

By H. C. HAMILTON
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
NEW YORK, July 30.—It appears that the National league is about to do something in support of Governor John K. Tener, president, in his public stand against the American league. Instead of talking about what should be done in the case and publicly declaring themselves either opposed to or for the man who has done so much for the major league, the National's magnates are holding their peace and making some real hay.

George Stallings, manager of the Boston club, is the only man connected with the National league who has expressed himself in any terms of certainty regarding the Perry controversy. As Stallings is the man in the National league principally interested in the discussion, his words were quickly gobbled up. He declared himself in favor of a strong stand against Dan Johnson to "show him where he gets off."

As a matter of fact Johnson is scarcely as much to blame as Connie Mack, for without Mack's action in carrying the case to the courts the deed of President Tener would not have shown its head. Johnson, however, embroiled himself when he stated in a message that the American league would not, under any consideration, consent to the removal of Perry from the Athletics, and also, when, after the decision of the commission, he exposed his own opinion—that the decision was unjust.

Many things can happen as a result of the decision of Governor Tener to have nothing more to do with cases which involve the American league. As the national agreement provides for the president of the National league to sit as one member of the body which governs baseball, his action in this case is tantamount to his resignation from the commission. Also, it may preclude playing the world's series, for rules which govern that baseball classic provide that the national commission shall make all rules and shall preside over the games.

MATCH SPEED IN 'MITCHELL TODAY

MITCHELL, S. D., July 30.—Ten drivers with $200,000 worth of cars and equipment arrived in Mitchell yesterday to enter the automobile races to be held at Hitchcock park this afternoon. Two of these cars, the Benz, driven by Lamp-skin, and the Fiat, by Henderson, are worth $60,000.

The program includes eight events. The feature is a match between John Boyd, a millionaire oil man of Tulsa, Okla., with a twin six Packard, and R. Burr Lampskin of Chicago, with his Sun Ray Roamer.

Another feature will be the Australian handicap race, in which there are four starters, starting at the four equal points of the track. As a car is passed it is eliminated and the race is limited to ten laps of the one-mile track. The purse for this race is $400.

The entrants of the race are Lamp-skin, with a Benz and Sun Ray Roamer; Boyd, Packard; Dushbach, Maxwell; Allen, Hudson; Epperson, Mercury; Davidson, Dons L'Argent; Henderson, Fiat; Young, Young Special; Lecoq, Midget Hankin; Buchanan, Baby Mine.

The races will be followed by a two period exhibition of auto polo.

J. EVERS GETS LAST GOOD-BYE

NEW YORK, July 30.—Johnny Evers, the famous Chicago second baseman, was one of the fifty Knights of Columbus secretaries to whom Marcel Knecht of the French high commission bade good-bye yesterday on the steps of the public library. The fifty, who will go to France by the next sailing, from the largest single contingent sent by K. of C. since it started its campaign to send 1,000 secretaries to the front before Sept. 15. Johnny Evers is to be one of the K. of C. athletic directors.

25,000 WITNESSED BALL GAME

Judging by the size of the crowd, estimated at 25,000, that witnessed the baseball game between the employees of the Standard Shipbuilding Corporation and the Morse Dry Dock company at Shooters Island, Staten Island, baseball is still looked upon as the national game, notwithstanding Secretary of War Baker's ruling holding it to be "non-essential."

TALES OF CARDINAL STRIFE ARE FICTION

By H. C. HAMILTON
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
NEW YORK, July 30.—The path of Jack Hendricks, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, never rose higher than assumed command of that club, being made harder than ever by a flood of stories purporting to originate "in the west" and declaring that his club is filled with strife.

One of these yarns is to the effect that Rogers Hornsby recently complained of an injury to his back when he was out of contention and was promptly suspended by Hendricks. Thereupon this story has it, Hornsby packed his grip and went home, confiding to just a few intimates that he was through with baseball for keeps.

The fact is that Hornsby was summoned by his local board in Texas, with instructions to get into some other kind of work or be classified in class 1-A. Then he went home to settle matters with the draft board.

This compares well with the story circulated last spring to the effect that Hornsby and Hendricks were about to break off relations. At that time the shortstop was under care of a physician who ordered him to remain out of the game for some time. When he recovered he was back in the game with his full strength.

Hendricks told the writer shortly after the last baseball season that he was on excellent terms with every man on his baseball club, including "Pepper" Hornsby.
